

[07] Rumelange
NATIONAL MINING MUSEUM
www.mnm.lu

- Journey on a train through the mines
- Visit of the underground galleries
 (more than 80 meters below the surface)

The tour starts aboard a mine train which first takes you through old opencast mines and then enters the underground mine through the Langengrund tunnel. The largest part of the collection is on display in the mine's original tunnels. Presented in their original location, the machinery and tools are a vivid reminder of mining as it was. This exhibition gives the visitor a real understanding of working in a mine and reveals more than a century of technological evolution.

[05] Esch-sur-Alzette
MUSEUM OF THE COCKERILL MINE
www.cockerill.lu

- Living and working environment of miners
- Visit of the former mining area

Nestled amid the nature reserve Ellergronn, this museum offers a unique combination of the region's natural and industrial heritage. You can visit the restored Katzenberg mining site with its pithead baths, an old forge, the museum presenting fossils, carbide lamps and various other artefacts from the former iron industry.

[04] Belval
BLAST FURNANCES & CITY OF SCIENCE
www.fonds-belval.lu

- Steel production
- Visit of a blast furnace
- Panoramic view on Belval

Belval is both a former industrial site and a new city quarter. Renovated and integrated into the new urban neighbourhood, the industrial remnants are now a symbol of renewal, linking the past to the present and the future. When there, we recommend climbing the stairs to the top of the blast furnace (40m height) which offers breathtaking views of the new districts of Belval.
